Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum

For an inside look at the lives and the stories behind the music of your favorite performers, bring your group to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum -- a 150,000 square –foot picturesque building that is the permanent home of the world’s only Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. The Museum features dynamic interactive exhibits, intimate performance spaces and presents a rotation of artifact and costume displays from the Museum’s permanent collection. The Museum is constantly changing exhibits to showcase specific eras, styles and milestones, as well as highlight the many facets of rock and roll’s evolution.

Fat Fish Blue

is celebrating 12 years of gumbo and good times at its current downtown location. Gulf-Coast born and raised Chef "JR" Grady's barbecued shrimp, sweet potato pecan pie and crawfish po' boys fuel the 7 days a week lunch and dinner rush, live local and national music acts take the stage under high ceilings. Should you require a thirst quencher with more wallop than a Southern Sweet tea, there's a full bar. "Laissez le bon temps rouler!" is our motto (Let the good times roll!) Located on the corner of Prospect & Ontario, just a block north of the "Q", two blocks north of Progressive Field, short walking distance to Tower City Amphitheater and Playhouse Square. Put a little Mardi Gras in your life! Motorcoach parking available.
